Hi Tom,

Thanks you for being so willing to help me out. I really appreciate it. I have attached my resume and include a few writing samples at the bottom of this email. In the body of this email I have included some details about what I have been up to over the past few years. Please let me know if there is anything else that you need.

I graduated from DePaul University in Chicago about four years ago with degrees in journalism and psychology. After that I stayed in Chicago worked for over a year doing various not for profit jobs. I decided I wanted a change, so I quit my work and moved to North Dakota to work in the Oil Fields. I spent seven month working there and saving up money before leaving for New Zealand.

My trip there was supposed to last three months, but I decided to extend it to almost a year because I loved it there so much.

Starting while I was living on New Zealand's south island, I began working as a freelance writer and copy editor. I got my start by writing for a small magazine local to the adventure capital of the world, Queenstown.

Since, I have continued to write for the magazine as well as for a number of other sources. I have been able to not only satisfy, but regularly exceed the expectations and needs of those who I have worked with, and I promise to do the same for you and everyone else at Federated Media.
